KPFA is a 59,000 watt listener-sponsored community radio station broadcasting to most of Northern California. KPFB (89.3 MHz) is a 150-watt station for areas of Berkeley that cannot receive KPFA. The station is licensed to the Pacifica Foundation and broadcasts at a frequency of 94.1 MHz. The KPFA signal is also aired in Fresno on KFCF (88.1 MHz, PO Box 4364 Fresno CA 93744 [209] 233-2221). Pacifica also broadcasts in New York (WBAI, 99.5 MHz); Los Angeles (KPFK, 90.7 MHz); Houston (KPFT, 90.1 MHz); Washington DC (WPFW, 89.3 MHz). Programs are available from Pacifica Archives, 3729 Cahuenga, No. Hollywood, CA 91604 [818]506-1077 or [800]735-0230. KPFA augments its programming with information and material from: Africa News Service, Associated Press, Pacifica Archives, Reuters. KPFA is not responsible for unsolicited manuscripts or tapes submitted to the station.

Change Your Address:

Send us your Folio label and your new address 4-6 weeks before you move.

Expiration Date: Above your name, next to your account number (i.e. 9303-Mar. 1993).

Gift Subscriptions: Send us your Folio label with the form below, filling in recipient's pertinent information or call the above numbers.

Credit Card or Electronic Funds Transfer: During marathon periods only, call (510) 848-KPFA. Other times, call (510) 848-6767 Ext. 610.

Mailing Lists: The Pacifica Foundation provides KPFA's mailing list to a firm which rents or exchanges the lists to other non-profit organizations. If you do not want your address exchanged, write our Subscriptions Dept. and enclose your Folio label. The letters NX will then appear on your mailing label.

KPFA can be found on the dial at 94.1 FM; KPFB at 89.3 FM in parts of the East Bay only; and KFCF at 88.1 FM in Fresno. Donations are tax deductible in accordance with the law.

Pros and Cons

Dear Editor: Enclosed is a compilation of excerpts for the Folio from about 80 letters I've received in response to my recent trilogy of Morning Concerts honoring the Dark Time of year. I am truly mind-blown by this level of response. Enclosed are a few characteristic comments and their author's names. Sincerely, Ellen Holmes/Adagio Recordings:

Your programming represents a rare gift. William Watts. KPFA is such a treasure and to have people like you making it such a jewel is really a gift! Debbie Shaw. This morning's program moved me deeply as did your introduction to it. You've convinced me to donate to KPFA despite my low-income status. Bill Blackburn. You definitely have a knack for discerning the most incredible selections in the polyphonic repertoire, far beyond most Renaissance choral music and I've been listening for more than ten years. Richard Feather Anderson. Thanks so much for a profoundly moving experience. Diane Ohlsson. Many thanks for putting together such an incredible show. Mary Benoit. Wonderful! Inspiring! Joyce Webber. It's amazing your ability to consistently pick out such wonderful music—the music in your programs goes straight to my heart. June Hudson. Your show was probably my favorite for the past year. Bob Bobon. I listened to your eloquent and moving introduction and felt the need to let you know how wonderful it was to start the day with such profound words. Thank you again for your thoughtful show and for sharing your knowledge and love of music. Tuyet Azlin. The music filled my heart. Thank you for your wonderful gift: Choosing these pieces and playing them. And also the reading you did I will never forget! Blessings to you. Barbara Braz.

Congratulations and kudos on a beautifully designed Annual Report. Gosh, where would we all be without KPFA and it's dedicated staff! In an otherwise dismal political environment, it is a beacon of hope and enlightenment. All the best. Leon Lefson/Sacramento

Dear Sandy Miranda: Last week I was bouncing around the radio dial on my way to work when I came upon your wonderful show with the esteemed Rebecca Mauleón. I was able to get a portion of the show on tape and have been devouring it ever since, funky Danville reception notwithstanding. Thank you so much for bringing this marvelous scholar-artist to KPFA, and giving wider exposure to the rich tradition of Afro-Cuban music. I've enclosed a SASE in hopes that you will kindly send me a copy of the play list for that show. Que viva la Música, y muchas gracias. Fritz Burden/Walnut Creek

Dear Sandy: It has taken a long time to adjust to David Mayers not having the World Music Morning Concert but I am really enjoying your show. So keep up the wonderful flow of music. Thank you, Greg Kelly

Dear Ms. Jennifer Stone: I heard your talk about Newt Gingrich (The Gingrich who stone Christmas) and was struck by the humor and intelligence in your expression. I think it a shame that a voice such as yours, low and soft and filled with a rich timbre and cadence, (an excellent quality and talent), should be so punished by a mere "bug" (book by Linus Pauling enclosed). I made serious efforts at one time to tell the then heads of KPFA and KPFC about Gary Null who has written over forty books on health and is presently heard on WBAI Pacifica station in New York. Please accept this small gift as a token appreciation for the very rich, humorous and righteously balanced commentary which you provide. I hope you will carefully tend the environs out of which your musically beautiful voice issues. I don't associate the name given your commentary with the actual vigor, depth, and humor of your presentation, so I suggest: Romancing the Stone! Kerwin Witnah/Middletown

To the Folio: Compliments to Ralph Steiner for his splendid and well-researched presentation of The UFO Cover-up. I missed the show when it was first broadcast in June, but made a point of catching the November re-broadcast when I heard an announcement on the air. I know there are probably a lot of people out there, progressives, who think this subject is unfit for KPFA's airwaves. They should remember that rigidity and closed-mindedness are the enemies of change. I found the program a real eye-opener, and I hope that others were moved, as was I, to re-think hidden assumptions. There is a lot about the world that we simply don't understand. Sometimes new challenges come along and force us to question what we think we know, and we are dragged kicking and screaming all the way. You did a good job. Thank you so much! Lucile Borden

Dear KPFA: In addition to using KPFA as a major source of information, news and analysis, I rely upon it as a source for cultural enrichment. Over the course of the last decade, the music programs have provided me with hours of enjoyment and introduced me to beauty that has greatly enhanced my life. Catherine Gollery and Marta Ulvaeus were two of my favorite programmers, hosting the First Light show for several years. Their departure left me anxious that there would be a great gap in my musical life. But KPFA always provides. The last few weeks I have chanced to hear the programs of Esten Lindgren, yet another individual who seems to have a wonderfully intelligent, eclectic and aesthetic musical range. He joins Andrew Rosenthal of The Colours of Aire, Art Sato, Jim Bennett, Kutay Kugay, the Indian music programs, and the Bay Area Treasure. Larry

McCombs. Larry has filled in for nearly every absent programmer over the last two months, so much so that I thought a coup had occurred at the station. I just wanted to take the time to thank the station for giving me so much. Have a wonderful holiday season, with subscribers showering you with money they didn't even know they had. Sincerely, Sherry Gendelman

Dear KPFA, Re: Bill Mandel: The 20-min. slot on the Morning Show is one of the best things Monday has going for it—One can chew on that info all day, such is its depth and composition. Thank you, Bill Mandel. H. Halse/San Francisco

Dear KPFA: A primary objective of any coup is to control information; secure radio, TV, newspapers. Now, in the guise of a taxpayers' advocate, a cold-blooded newt of the new coup wants to end funding for PBS and, as Michael Feldman recently quipped, place Bert and Ernie in an orphanage. Is Pacifica too small and far to the left to appear on the conservative's target? We'd better be vigilant. My additional donation to KPFA brought the wonderful KPFA cookbook to my home today. I've already baked Zeff's great banana bread. Mama O'Shea is next. Thank you. Sincerely, Reed Maxson

To Marci Lockwood: I listened Sunday: The new (broadcast) technology sounds exciting. I miss the bookstore authors' readings you used to program. I still have a tape I made of Salmon Rushdie before he wrote Satanic Verses! And don't forget San Luis Obispo as a target area. A. Hall/Fresno

KPFA: I realize that the time of day that I pledge during a Marathon is a vote for the show that I support. And I vote for so many of your shows that I just wish to pick one to focus on in this letter: Bonnie Simmons on Saturdays. Simmons is a true natural treasure. If you want to revamp and "eclecticize" your music, she's the one to do it. In one hour on Saturday (amazingly brief) I learn more about music in general and current music in particular than I could find out reading most of the popular magazines on the subject. I would never learn this by listening to top 40 radio all day. I like her. Also, I love your morning and afternoon music shows: Robbie Osman on Sunday, Chapel, Court and Countryside, Bill Sokol, etc. I love Women's Magazine, and the News every day, plus Kris and Philip, etc. Thank you! I've been listening for 27 years and I'm not even old! Chris Aglin

Dear Greg Lassonde: Delighted to receive the package of KPFA tapes. I think this is the best collection so far. Good timing as I'm about to leave to visit Michigan where my son has little access to this kind of listening. I had caught some, but in a hodgepodge way. For instance, I didn't realize how extraordinary the aboriginal story was until it had been going about 15 minutes, and the introduction was important. Many thanks, Betty West/Cupertino

Dear KPFA Folks: I am unable to send any money but I did volunteer during the Marathon. I am one of many listeners in Sonoma County (and a paying member). I would like to give more of my time to support the station, but distance is a problem. Is there something that we "country" listeners could do from afar (mailings, phone calls, etc.) to feel more contributory? I'm continually impressed with the quality and variety from First Light, to The Morning Show to Flashpoints to Sunday classical and jazz programming. It's a great place to tune in! Thanks so much for being there! Adrienne Bowes/Sebastopol

To Ginny and Marci: I enjoyed hearing you today. My request for programming on KPFA is for a weekend drama program for us TV-less listeners. I used to enjoy Sunday evening theater and still miss it. Alice Hall/Fresno

Dear KPFA: I recently heard a small segment of The UFO Cover-up by George Knapp and Ralph Steiner. It was a great broadcast. I only wish I had heard the whole program which included a report on the Roswell project. Are tapes available? If so, how can I acquire them? Will you be re-broadcasting this show in the near future? Please let me know. Thank you. Tia Quilter/North Fork

Dear KPFA: We loved Out of the Mouths of Babies! For me it was the very best part of Christmas, Chanukah, Kwanza, and anything we can still celebrate in spite of all. Thanks, Woody Schwartz/Sebastopol

To KPFA: Here's my $30 check for my pledge. I loved the Women's Spirituality segment of the Marathon, particularly the Marija Gimbutas interviews. My income is limited and I've dropped most of my monetary "giving", but want to support your excellent work to the degree that I can. I'm a fairly new listener, and I am happy to have found you, since I had grown increasingly disenchanted with NPR stations. Jennifer Stone speaks right to my heart. Thanks for it all. Patricia Matherway

Dear KPFA: If I was working I would do more. Thanks for Living on Indian Time and the John Trudel interview. Peace, Gail Mitchell

In Praise of those times I have heard on your station a substantial criticism of the Soviet crumble, which includes its having had to deal with the enormous external pressures, in particular WWII, plus endless soft wars, which it fought in suppressive and polluting ways. These were also influenced by humanity's heritage of hierarchical structures and their concomitant purges. Your station would well serve the community and probably profit by removal of its present News dept.—AP, UPI, INS, Chron., Exam., ABC, NBC, CBS-style—MacNeil/Lehrer content!! The original objectives and the degree to which these were realized in the USSR need to be reiterated daily, so we know where we are going. All eat, all get cared for; housing, health care, etc., all read, study, play. Say it, say it, say it, let's try again: Please put on more Parenti/Peggy Knowton, whoever is playing tapes. Do it as a series of call-in shows. Give Jennifer Stone more time. Let her read, too. Please, please. Norma J.F. Harrison/Berkeley

Changes: On-Air, Off-Air and in Washington

by Marci Lockwood/General Manager

REGULAR DAYTIME LISTENERS TO KPFA will have noticed that we've made some changes to our schedule. We've added the one hour 100 Days of Congress program from 9 am to 10 am Monday through Friday. This show, hosted daily by Larry Bensky, Pacifica's award-winning National Affairs Correspondent and Julianne Malvaux, Pacifica commentator and national political journalist, will be closely following the first 100 days of the 104th Congress. As this Republican-controlled Congress enacts its "Contract with America", Pacifica and KPFA will be in Washington monitoring and reporting to you the day to day progress of the new Republican agenda. We will also be offering an analysis of the potential social and cultural impact this "contract" could have on all of us.

The addition of this show necessitated moving some of our other programming. You will find the Morning Concert each day from 10 am to noon, and Word and Image has now taken the 4 to 4:30 PM time slot Monday through Thursday. Many of the former 11 am Word and Image hosts will be on during this half-hour arts magazine show, so check your Folio listings.

Between Feb. 8th and 22nd, we present our first fund-raising Marathon of 1995. Be sure to tune in for some unique and special programming aimed at challenging the political zeitgeist and at restoring one's spirit. On Wednesdays at noon, Joan Marler presents Voices of Vision: Conversations on Essential Ideas, a series exploring feminist spiritual values in a world out-of-wack. On Fri., Feb. 10, 7 PM, we present The Immigration Wars, examining the fall-out of Prop. 187 and anti-immigrant hysteria. Tues., Feb. 14th is Fight Back Day with progressive alternatives to the "Contract with America". Music bedecks the program line-up, starting with a Zakir Hussain Special on Feb. 8th. Coming up, we have on Wed., Feb. 15, 7 PM, Get Back with The Beatles - previously unissued recordings. Friday, Feb. 17, 1 PM, it's A Date with Elvis Presley. And on Sat., Feb. 18, it's Grateful Dead Day, 16 hours of music and interviews. All in all, this Marathon promises to be inspiring and enjoyable. Check your listings.

Off-air changes include some staff comings and goings. Catherine Gollery, our station Bookkeeper/Office Manager and Morning Concert host has left the station to take over as Music Director at KGNU in Boulder, Colorado. KGNU is a Pacifica affiliate station, so Catherine should feel right at home. We all wish her the best at her new job and will miss her greatly here in Berkeley. Meigan Devlin has been hired as our new Bookkeeper/Office Manager.

Morning Show listeners may have heard a new name each day; Andrea Kissack has joined KPFA's staff as Producer of the Morning Show. Andrea has 10 years of experience in broadcast journalism with experience as an anchor, reporter and producer for both radio and television. Her award-winning work has been heard on National Public Radio (NPR), Monitor Radio, CBS and BBC radio. Andrea comes to KPFA via our sister station, KPFA in L.A. where she worked as a public affairs producer. KPFA's loss is KPFA's gain. She will be working with hosts Kris Welch and Philip Maldari to expand and improve our coverage of local, regional and national issues as they impact the Bay Area. You will hear a wider variety of guests, more in depth discussions and debates. If you are not a regular Morning Show listener, give it a try. You will be pleasantly surprised at what you'll hear between 6:30 and 9:00 am each weekday on 94.1

Patricia Medina, a graduate of our Apprenticeship Program has been hired as Director of the Women's Programming Department. I am confident that Patricia's unique perspective and commitment to quality radio will enrich KPFA's airwaves.

After an exhaustive national search, KPFA has hired Amina Hassan as Development Director, proving that no matter how far you search, the answer could be right in your own backyard. Amina began her radio career at KPFA in 1978 and was instrumental in establishing the station's Apprenticeship Program. She returns to KPFA with a diverse background in non-profit fund-raising and radio production. She is the former Director of the Annual Fund and Alumni Relations at the Pacific School of Religion. Additionally, Amina is former Development Director for the largest low-income Latino law center in San Francisco. She administered radio projects for the Institute for Policy Study in Washington, D.C., and for the National Museum of American History of the Smithsonian Institute. Amina has lived and traveled extensively in the Caribbean (where she reported on the U.S. invasion of Grenada), the Near and Middle East (reporting from the Embassy in Tehran on the U.S. hostage situation), North Africa, Central America and Europe. Amina can be reached by phone at ext. 222.

Greg Lassonde remains with Pacifica as Major and Planned Gifts Director. Greg's award-winning work in the field of planned giving has been a model in the public radio system and has positioned KPFA as an innovator in the field. Greg can be reached at ext. 242.

It is essential that KPFA commit resources to both programming and development activities at this time. As the Republican Party threatens to cut off funding for the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) and slash government spending on social welfare programs, KPFA's response must include provocative on-air alternative coverage of the GOP agenda, and a strong funding base from which to defy government efforts to censor or silence our voice. You can help insure KPFA's survival and continued growth in several ways: Write to your Congressional representatives and to Senators Barbara Boxer and Dianne Feinstein. Let them know what KPFA and public broadcasting mean to you, and urge them to support continued funding of CPB. Respond to the 100 Days of Congress mail appeal you received in mid January from KPFA. And finally, pledge an additional gift, gift subscription or renewal during KPFA's February Marathon.

7:00 The Immigration Wars
The passage of Prop. 187 in California brought

Marathon: February 8 – 22

into focus the widespread anti-immigrant sentiment that led to the initiation of what many critics feel is a racist and xenophobic legislative act against undocumented immigrants. While the law is currently being challenged for its constitutionality, many critics feel that undocumented immigrants are being scapegoated for the ills created by the failed economic policies of Republican governors such as California's Pete Wilson. In this investigative special we will explore the emergence of the anti-immigrant movement within the state and its current agenda to take these issues nationwide; a brief history of immigration policy in the U.S. and its territories; a profile of the growing resistance emerging from the student movement opposing Prop. 187; plus attorneys and immigrant rights groups who are challenging the law in the courts. Produced by Chuy Varela.

by Julianne Malveaux and Larry Bensky, every weekday, from 9–10 AM, until further notice.

10:15 Vandana Shiva

Vandana Shiva, considered by some to be one of the world's most prominent radical scientists, is also a philosopher, a feminist, and a winner of the 1993 Right Livelihood Award. She is a leading physicist who left a career in nuclear energy to become a leader in citizen's action against environmental destruction, both globally and in her native India. In this recent interview with Penny Rosenwasser and Margaret Pavel, Shiva exposes the growing threat of "intellectual property rights" and the colonization of the human body: "The mammary gland is going to be the most efficient pharmaceutical factory of the future". She also explores issues of diversity, the western media, GATT, the upcoming women's conference in Beijing, and the power of human creativity and courage.

Field Notes. Stories by Barry Lopez. Alfred A Knopf, N.Y., 1994. These spare, haunting stories convey a sense of magic and marvelous strangeness. They ask a single fundamental question: How close can one, and should one, get to nature? Intimacy with nature carries certain costs for those whose personal strivings may interfere with their ability to look and to listen. Read by Ed Markmann.
